Partnering for Student Success: Go Far, Go Together

A conference for schools, families and community groups

Learn what research says about effective family, school and community engagement to support student success.

Understand how to move programs that require family, school and community engagement beyond compliance into effectiveness.

Hear from people who are doing new things and getting promising results.

Plan with your team and connect your learning to your practice.

Who Should Attend

Teams of people who want to work together: principals, teachers, counselors, parents, families, ESD and district staff, early learning staff, college faculty, pre-service teachers, social service agencies and community organizations.
